Tuesday Evenings are Quiz Evenings

Every Tuesday we have a Quiz which starts at 8 p.m. and everyone is welcome. The emphasis is on enjoyment, although there are cash prizes to be won.

We have a number of quiz-masters who take it in turns to present the quizzes, and after the main quiz of the evening is finished we have a "Stinker" competition. To win the Stinker your team has to answer all five questions correctly, choosing from the possible answers which are provided by the Quiz-master.

The Stinker prize was won by the 'Desk' team - members Ed & Di West and Ken Kearns, who share the €400 prize. The Stinker prize this week will be €200, so come along and try your luck (and skill!) If you have never been to one of our quizzes, why not come and see what they are like. Teams are limited to four people, but if you come alone we will find a team for you somewhere. The atmosphere is friendly and newcomers are always welcome.
